ABCLT sets high standards that guide our interactions in our community and specific principles that direct how we make decisions. We are governed by the following set of core values: community, collective decision-making, empowerment, equity, and dignity. ABCLT members use their diverse array of skills and perspectives to add value on strategy, governance, fundraising and ABCLT’s profile in the community. ABCLT highly values the involvement of members and constituents in our programs and activities, and works towards diversity in our workforce, governance, and the people we serve. In keeping with this value, ABCLT seeks to ensure the highest possible level of inclusion and cultural sensitivity.

By submitting this application for membership, you commit to ABCLT’s mission of expanding affordable housing opportunities through the community land trust model.
